

KOOWEERUP REGIONAL HEALTH SERVICE

HEALTH CARE WORKERS

Join our caring Home Care Team

Kooweerup Regional Health Service (KRHS) successfully provides Home Care packages to people in their own homes within the Cardinia, Casey and Bass Coast areas.

We are continually growing and have increasing requirements to provide excellent care and support to our Home Care clients.

This opportunity is ideally suited to Health Care Workers seeking casual employment and additional flexibility in their work environment.

The Health Care Worker role includes but will not be limited to:

- Personal care, for example daily living tasks such as hygiene, dressing, assistance with meal preparation.
- Assist with home help needs, for example making beds and maintaining their home in clean living conditions.
- Support consumers with personal shopping, banking or social needs as required.
- Assist the consumer to access local medical appointments as required.

The successful applicant will:

- Hold a relevant qualification in Certificate III in Home & Community Care or Certificate III in Aged Care or equivalent registered vocational training and (have an additional qualification in Medication Administration from a blister pack would be of benefit).
- Be able to demonstrate a knowledge and ability to undertake care needs with the consumer in their home and work within the Quality and OH&S Standards.
- Have the ability to work unsupervised with a high degree of initiative and the flexibility and willingness to undertake a variety of duties within the daily routine.
- Previous Home Care experience is highly regarded.
- Hold a relevant Police Check, First Aid Certificate, and a current Driver's License and have access to reliable transport.

To obtain a Position Description or for more information about this position, please contact Aileen Thoms (Primary Health Manager) or Belinda Hartley (Home Care Services care advisor) on: 5997 9679.

Please forward your cover letter and resume marked Private and Confidential to Aileen Thoms PO Box 53 Koo Wee Rup VIC 3981 or via email to thomsa@krhs.net.au

FM/sg/20943